COMMANDER’S COMMENTS:

As you read these comments, Christmas and the beginning of the New Year Holiday will have come and gone, and as Commander, I look forward to the New Year with anticipation and enthusiasm. We spent the second half of 2012 organizing and getting Post 103 on firm footing so the 2013 year and the years that follow, will have the kind of membership growth that we want and need.

As of 12-19-12 our membership was at 96.23%. We still have a few members who need to get their dues into Harry Ciruli.

On December 13th, John Palmquist and I were presented with a $500.00 donation for Boys State, from Marjory and Don Buttram two of our regular Bingo players. All of our Post Bingo Volunteers signed a Christmas card thanking them for the great support they have given Post 103 throughout the year.

On December 18th, Ed Pietsch, Harry Ciruli, Roger Masse and I, presented Certificates of Appreciation for proper display and care of the American and POW/MIA flags to Kathy Yevoli, President of Rocky Mountain Harley Davidson.

Kathy and her Staff were greatly appreciative for the recognition our Post gave to her place of business, and they pledged to continue to care for our country's flag as they have done all along.

Post 103 also sent a Christmas package to Specialist 4th Class Joseph Gryniewicz, currently stationed at Ft Hood, Texas. Joe Sr. thanked Post 103 through me, by email for making his son's Christmas away from home nicer.

On December 25th, A Blue star Banner and Certificate was presented by me to Bette Sellers-Anderson for her son, SSG E6 Jason C. Anderson, USArmy, Special Operations who returned home from Afghanistan for a visit and will be reassigned to Hawaii for Separation from the Army.

On January 1, I will be presenting a Certificate of Honor to my Sister, Marilyn Rodriguez in recognition of the service her Father and my Stepfather, CPL, Manuel E. Maestas, USArmy, rendered during WWII.

Our next regular meetings will be Monday, Feb. 4th for our Board and Wednesday, Feb. 6th for our Membership. All meeting times are the same.

Also, to all members, we have a Post breakfast this month, January 19th at the Englewood Elks, 9:00AM, Price is $5:00 per person. We look forward to seeing all of you.
